BESCHREIBUNG

Magnificent home with spectacular views of the sea. The house has a garage, kitchen, audiovisual room and dining room that communicates with a terrace conceived as a summer dining room. The dining room forms a diaphanous space with the main living room and the staircase that goes to the ground floor. The second level includes the night and leisure area, around which the terrace extends where the infinity pool stands out; On this level there are 3 bedrooms with private bathrooms. The whole of this luxury house, built by a careful succession of spaces is completed with a private apartment with independent access, a guest module with living / dining room, kitchen, bedroom and bathroom. Plot with several garden areas connected to each other by external stairs with stainless steel railing and glass, as shown in the photos of the house.
